... The Need for Early Reservations

By planning in advance, the San Juan Committee of the American Society of Hematology has been able to secure an ample commitment of deluxe hotel accommodations which, combined with the excellent meeting facilities, will make San Juan an extremely attractive convention location.

The hotels require a final reservation list and deposit one month in advance of arrival. Deadline no later than November 1.

Similarly, the airlines serving San Juan are normally booked to capacity many weeks in advance during this season.

As a result of these conditions, the San Juan Committee of the American Society of Hematology has taken the following action:

1. We have appointed an official travel and hotel coordinating center at Travel Consultants, Inc. This firm specializes in coordinating registration, travel arrangements, hotel accommodations and postconvention trips.

2. We have asked the Coordination Center to prepare an advance information summary so that members will have ample opportunity to make travel, hotel and other arrangements well in advance of the required deadlines, which, as you can see from the above information, will be considerably advanced from conventions held in the mainland cities.

We request the cooperation of all members in arranging transportation through the Coordination Center. All tickets are issued at standard published tariff rates. Tickets may be paid for in any manner you would use to pay the airlines—that is, by check or by charging to an air travel card or any other credit card accepted by the airlines.

Make reservations with TRAVEL CONSULTANTS, INC. and send with this completed form to:

Educational Program, American Society of Hematology

There will be preregistration for the Educational Program to determine preferences. Tickets for admission will not be issued. In general the sessions will be small (30–40 persons). Every attempt will be made to arrange simultaneous sessions where indicated to accommodate all those interested in a particular topic. For orderly planning, therefore, it is imperative that preregistration information be provided by all those planning to attend, on or before August 15, 1970. Notification of acceptance to individual sessions will be mailed in advance of the meeting on or before November 1st. Where space is limited, preference will be given to members.
